LITHIUM-ION BATTERY EMERGENCIES

November 9–13, 2026

This 4-hour course, hosted by San Mateo Consolidated Fire Department, explains what lithium-ion batteries are, how they are constructed, where they are used, safety concerns, and how they can cause fires and explosions. You will learn how to identify situations in which batteries may be involved and the current strategies and tactics for responding to battery incidents.

DATES:

November 9, 8am-Noon
November 9, 1pm-5pm
November 10, 8am-Noon
November 10, 1pm-5pm
November 12, 8am-Noon
November 12, 1pm-5pm
November 14, 8am-Noon
November 14, 1pm-5pm

LOCATION:

HL Jamieson Auditorium Building 960
One Franklin Parkway
San Mateo, CA 94403

COST: $50.00

REGISTER

Visit our website or scan QR code.

INDUSTRIAL EMERGENCY COUNCIL
Emergency Response Training